1. Heard. The finding has been recorded by the Tribunal that the petitioner had appeared thrice for the revenue qualifying examination; the first two attempts were his regular attempts and third chance was his special attempt. The Government resolution provides that if a person passes the revenue qualifying examination after two attempts, i.e., in a special attempt, then in that circumstances the said person looses the seniority. The Tribunal has correctly appreciated this position and decided the matter. No interference is called for. Petition is rejected.
